

Society for Petroleum Laboratory (Regd.)
Requires
Executive Director

Fuel Testing Laboratory (FTL), Noida under Society for Petroleum Laboratory (SFPL), a registered body under societies registration act was set up in the year 2000. The society was set up for testing of auto fuels supplied by PSU oil marketing companies in NCT/NCR region as per the directive of Hon'ble Supreme Court under close monitoring of Environment (Prevention & Control) Authority (EPCA) & various organizations/institutions viz. MOP&NG, Govt. of NCT of Delhi, IOCL, IIP, OIDB, PNGRB, EPCA, CPCB, TERI, HPCL, BPCL etc.

Qualification: Post graduate in chemistry or B.Tech /BE in Chemical Engineering

Age: Minimum 50 yrs & Maximum 62 years.

Experience: The applicant should have minimum 20 years experience in downstream petroleum research and product analysis including minimum 10 years essential experience in the area of petroleum research, planning and co-ordination with refineries, marketing and government agencies.

He should have experience of managing of petroleum research/fuel testing laboratory and should be able to guide laboratory chemists. He should be familiar with BIS, IP/ASTM and other international test methods for testing of petroleum products and the latest developments in the petroleum field.

He should be fully conversant on use and application of computers and Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS) and should be able to associate in developing advance LIMS for SFPL.

The applicant alone has to coordinate with Indian Institute of Petroleum, Dehradun who have a MOU with SFPL for operation & Maintenance of Fuel Testing Laboratory, at Noida, generate necessary Management Reports, Annual Highlights etc. He should thus be fully conversant with operation of PC's including familiarity with Micro Soft Office, Microsoft Word, Power Point and Excel.

Emoluments: Consolidated salary including perquisites commensurate with qualification and experience will be paid.

General: Persons who have applied against the earlier advertisement released on 14th March 2009 may send their application considering the revised requirements and experience. However in case we do not receive the revised application from those persons, their original applications will be considered.

The contract will be for an initial period of 3 years but will be renewed every year depending on performance by Governing Council of SFPL.

Interested candidates may apply to the Secretary, Society for Petroleum Laboratory, C/o Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Research & Development Centre, Sector-13, Faridabad-121007 within 30 days.

You may contact at email : kackera@iocl.co.in: kackeranup@iocrd.co.in

Candidates currently serving in Govt./PSUs should apply through proper channel.